"TRICKERY"
Two-reel Western

TED WOOD'S house is mortgaged for $1,000. He has but $700 and cannot get the rest in the three days which remain before the mortgage is foreclosed. "Gentlemen Joe" and "The Slick Kid," confidence men, arrive looking for victims. They trick Ted into buying a spurious diamond for the money he had saved to pay off the mortgage.

Ted realizes later he has been duped and manages to recover his money after a terrific struggle with the crooks. He finds the gem, although not a diamond, has immense value to a Hindu sect, returns it to its proper owners and is given a reward, enabling him to pay off the mortgage and marry the girl.

"THE SECRET FOUR"

No. 13, "The Man Trap"

JIM, rescued from the burning well by Blackstone and his men, sets out after Reynolds, who has made a prisoner of Nadine and Helen. He manages to release the two girls from the cabin wherein they are confined, but is overtaken by two of Reynolds's henchmen.

A mysterious Indian comes to their rescue and engages in combat with the two crooks, while Jim effects an escape with the girls. They are free of Reynolds's accomplices when they get in the way of a herd of stampeding cattle and are about to be trampled to death by the thundering hooves of the maddened cattle.
